Motto Verses for Funerals.

Doubtless everybody has read samples of the prevailing style of motto verses for funerals, to be found chiefly in the oblivary columns of the Herald, and has been duly struck with the brist statistics generally woven into their hitching starzas. Sometimes we learn from the poet of

"—a cherub has fled, To the bright skies above— Johnny Tompkins is dead

Or that "Rachel Amelia, who proto Of beauty and power, Has gone to her grave."

Or that "Our darling boy has left his home. In fields of bits for aye to roam."

Not long since the following efficient line

We respect the feelings of relatives and friends during times of affliction, and do not purpose, in noticing the effusions incident is bereavement, to triffs with the matter. In rice cases out of ten, it is probable that the mo-distant relative or friend, among the many wi always cluster around during the most sacre moments in family history, is the author of the comic or absurd sentimentalities that are pub-lished along with the advertisement of the decease. Sometimes the bereaved ones are not aware that an lambic memento of the dear de-parted has been produced, until it meets their sight in print. Of course the distant relative or friend thinks he does an act that will a one soothe and fister the more immediatriends, when he stealthily inserts his buch work with the announcement of the funera Candidly, we would advise this distant conne he rural cousin or obscure civilian. refrain from attempling anything like a func-refrain hereafter, unless he be an acknowledge "born" poet, and not a manufactured ba-Foolish sentiments in loose English and totte ing verse are about as offensive to good tas when the last Christian rites are to be pe formed, as would be an ill-shapen burial caor a soiled and tattered shroud.

DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION Weakness or Debility, Flatulency and Name Loss of Appotite, Nervoueness, Liver Com-plaints, Bilious Fevers, and all Dizease-of the Stomach, Liver, and Bowels A PREVENTIVE FOR FEVER AND AGE

THESE BITTERS ARE NOT EQUALLED

A. W. GREEKRY, Peopulation South THE ORJECT of all medicine is either to provent disease, or to assist Nature in restoring the various organs of the body to a healthful action, and that medicine is certainly the best which will perform those offices thoroughly, yet mildly, and without endangering the vital forces of the system, by whose normal condi-tion sions health and strongth can be preserved. Most of the Bitters that have heretofore been brought into popular favor, have only served the purpose of temporarily stimulating or ex-citing the organs into a condition resembling healthful action, without any remedial effect, and generally followed by a return of the dis-ease, or a prostration of a nervous energy more disastrous than though Nature had been left to ake its own course. Dr. Greeley's Bitters are a preparation of the nutritive properties of the grain of the fields in combination with the active principle of many simple alteratives and bitter tonics, and it is a pleasure to the proprietors to state that its usefulness is being generally acknowledged by the largely-increasing consumption in those sec-tions where it is best known, and by the testimony of many eminent physicians, who have not only made trial of it, but continual - prescribe the Bitters in those cases for which it is recommended.

AGED PEOPLE, AND ALL WEARLY PERSONS, Consumptive patients, and others, whose con stitutions have become impared by time, or en feebled by disease, and in whom the process of digestion does not replace the fat and tissues of the body as fast as they waste, will find those Bitters at once nourishing and strengthening, and happily adapted for their use. The great advantage the Bitters possess over ordinary stimulants usually prescribed in treating lung complaints and kindred diseases, is the fact that they combine many safe and certain bealing stimulant. DELICATE LADIES Will derive great benefit from it. No unpleasant effect will ever result from taking the Bit-ters, if the directions are followed. For these who suffer from nervous debility, languer, want of rest, exhaustian, and in all cases of weak ness, the Bitters are not equalled.

As an agreeable stemachic, it is much ad mired; it sharpens the appetite, brightens the intellect, and infuses new life and vigor. No one who uses these Ritters can be subject to an attack of FEVER and AGUE, or DIARRHOEA. Of all the ills that afflict men and women, few are so agonizing as Dyspepsia. It is a sort of combination of many diseases. Thanks to science and Dr. Grekley, a specific has now been obtained. GREELRY'S BOURSON BITTERS take straight held of the disease, and begin s cure. Thousands of well-attested cases of cures of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and Fever and Ague, even of the most desperate kind, are in the possession of the proprietors. Not a few people, everywhere, complain of Weakness or Debility. This is the gentle hint of nature for a little help in the way of invigoration. The hint should not be neglected. 'A stitch in time saves nine." Get a supply of GREELEY'S BOURBON BITTERS, take them regularly, and our word for it you will feel better, live longer, be stronger, and think and act with very much more satisfaction. The Bitters are a tonic, and of a nature never before attained in any medicine. It will make the weak strong, the desponding hopeful, the sick well. For any complaint of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels, there is nothing com; arable with this medicine. In America, the Liver is the best abused of all the organs in the body. It is made the saddle of all other organs. As a consequence, it is ften out of order, and not unfrequently nearly inoperative. This need not be; on the con trary, it is quite unnecessary. A little common sense, and a sufficiency of Grazzary's Bourson BITTERS, will keep the Liver right, and make man a man, and woman, now miserable, quite happy. The Bitters regulate and strengthen the Liver, no less than purify it.

The increase of Nervous Disorders, at the present day, is one of the most alarming indications of the age, or rather, would be, were it not that a most admirable cure had been found. There is not a phase of nervous disease, whatever it may be, that these Bitters will not act upon favorably, and in the most efficient manner. All who are unfortunately afflicted with complaints of this nature, or with ndigestion, or any diseases of the Stomach, should not fail to make use of GREELEY'S BOUR son Bitters.

Chills and Fever. In many portions of the United States, this terrible disease seizes its victims as naturally as water seeks its level. The system, in a particular condition, invites it. The right medicine to prevent and cure this malady, we unhositatingly say, is Gareley's Bourson Bitters. It breaks up the fover, drives it from the system, and will keep it at bay, if taken in accordance with directions on the bottle. The Bitters purify and enrich the blood, and this in return strengthens the con-stitution. As an agreeable tonic, these Bitters have no equal.
